A PLAN of the TOWNSHIP of LORTON
in the County of Cumberland

EMBLETON

WHINFELL

BRACKENTHWAITE

LOWESWATER

Swinside, Detached Part of Buttermere Township

Low Lorton

Lorton Commons Enclosed 1832

The light green shaded areas are part of the Lorton Commons which were enclosed under a 1826 act of Parliament and allotted to the landowners of the Township according to the value of their land. The Lorton Fells or commons were not enclosed at this time and were allotted manorially or people. The letter and sheet of the area has been added from the presentation frames of its large cousin

Key to Additions to the 1840 Tithe Apportionment Map

Field names are as given in the tithe apportionment.

Land usage codes are (a) arable (m) meadow (w) woodland.

Buildings existing but not included in the map

Colours are added to indicate farmsteds or smallholdings.

Population statistics from the 1841 Census

Total population	186
Aged 15 and under	124
Aged 60 and over	36

Notes

The maps are drawn originally on a scale of 6 chains (132 feet) to the inch, or in digital form, pixelated to 6 chains, 1000 feet, 1000 yards, 1 mile, 1000 metres, 1 km. The original (or digital) maps are drawn to a scale of 1:2500 (1 inch to 1 mile) and are printed on a scale of 1:2500 (1 inch to 1 mile) and are reproduced to a scale of 1:2500 (1 inch to 1 mile) and are reproduced to a scale of 1:2500 (1 inch to 1 mile) and are reproduced to