The Great War:- Ambleside's story

by Judith Shingler

Yew Tree Hall, High Lorton on Thursday 8th March, at 7.30pm

This talk provides an insight into the impact of World War 1 on Ambleside, including audio extracts from interviews by the Oral History Group and photographs from various sources.

Judith Shingler and Allison Peak work with the Ambleside Oral History Group (www.aohg.org.uk) which was formed over forty years ago. It now has over 400 local interviews, recording memories dating back to the turn of the 20th Century.

Visitors are welcome at £3, including refreshments

Next talk 10th May by John Spedding: 'The remarkable literary history of Mirehouse.'
