

The Bernard Bradbury Memorial Lecture, 2022

Cumbrian Artists: Mists, Fells, and Waterfalls

by Dr David A Cross, art historian

Saturday, 17 September, at 7.30 pm
The Kirkgate Centre, Cockermouth

Winifred Nicholson, 'Cumbrian
Landscape with Flowers'

Glasgow Museums Resource Centre

This illustrated talk celebrates many artists inspired by Lakeland from the 1750s to the 20th century. Some were famous in their lifetimes, others championed after death, or almost forgotten. Also marking the bi-centenary of the Painting House created by Joseph Sutton of the Cockermouth School of Painters.

Tickets £6 from The Kirkgate Centre or:
thekirkgate.ticketsolve.com/shows/8736342

Presented by Lorton & Derwent Fells Local History Society in association with the Cockermouth Civic Trust