V018 L&DFLHS VCH Group Historical information extraction form (Publications)

Source Pevsner		, N, Cumberland and Westmorland, The Buildings of England Series, Harmondsworth, Penguin Books, 1967
Name(s) of contributor(s)			JW Date of contribution		5/3/2012
1901 Parish	VCH cat (1-7)	Date range	Page(s) Content			Notes
BRA	7		82	`ENCLOSURE at the end of Crummock Water a small, roughly circular enclosure, 200 ft in diameter, with an entrance gap in the W. The bank is nowhere more than 2 ft in height. Within the enclosure is a series of hut circles, and there are two subsidiary banks.`			Additional to Hyde/Pevsner
DEA	7		120	`STONE CIRCLE, 4 m. SW now consists of eight stones forming a setting 100 ft in diameter.`			Additional to Hyde/Pevsner
MOS	5	1773	165	`ST MICHAEL Small, of nave with belicote and chancel. Plain oblong windows, plain oblong doorway. The type of the dale chapels preserved that late.`			Additional to Hyde/Pevsner
SET	7		189	`STONE CIRCLE, 1 ½ m. NE of Embleton consists of fifteen small stones, the largest 3 ft 6 in. high,forming a circle 100 ft in diameter. A single outlier on the SW.`			Additional to Hyde/Pevsner
WYH	5		213	`CHAPEL, by Kelsick Farm. In	ruins.`		